PROforma | THE TECHNOLOGY &
BUSINESS SUCCESS LEADER

A MESSAGE FROM PROFORMA'S CEO VERA MUZZILLO

“As a $500 million global company that has sourced products worldwide for many decades, we believe that we all have a social responsibility in this time of crisis to step up and help all of those in need. Our health care professionals demonstrate their heroism and bravery every day for each of us as we battle this crisis together.”

Proforma is committed to serving the needs of our communities and our at-risk workers through the most responsible sourcing from our long standing and trusted supplier partners with whom we have worked for decades.

This initiative is supported by our premier and industry leading proprietary business management system. We are proud to do our part and, together, we can overcome this pandemic and provide the tools for a better future!”

“When you consider partnering with an organization for your needs, we welcome you to speak with our management team and ask us any questions you might have to help you make the most informed decision possible.
